Big Mountain Terrain, Legendary Powder. Small Town Vibe.

Ski terrain

Revelstoke nestled in British Columbia's Selkirk Mountains, is renowned for its vast lift-served vertical drop and champagne powder. While it is famous for its steep pitches, record-breaking snowfall, and diverse terrain, it has incredible beginner terrain, a variety of winter activities and locally owned après in a small, charming mountain town. Revelstoke is an unparalleled destination for snowboarding and skiing enthusiasts.

Family Values

While Revelstoke has a reputation for steep and deep it also has a softer side. There's an awesome beginners area called Stellar Chair, a Kids' Centre, The Gnome Zone, a 14-acre terrain park, childcare and dedicated weekly family evenings. Plus family-friendly winter activities.

Mountain Sports School

The team is ready!
From learning to turn, to ripping up the steeps or to go bigger in the park, the certified instructors will help you reach your goal. Plus they're a bunch a great people. Children, teens, adults... of all abilities.

Après ski dining

On mountain or down in the town!
From cosy cafes to casual fine dining, you'll find what you're looking for.

The Stoke Shuttle

Too easy!
Fly into Kelowna International Airport (YLW) and catch Revelstoke transfers which runs 5 guaranteed departures per day during the winter.

TOP REASONS TO VISIT

Vertical Drop

Home to the longest vertical in North America!
Revelstoke boasts North America's longest vertical drop at 1,713 meters which allows for incredibly long runs and varied terrain, making it a haven for skiers and snowboarders.

Legendary Powder

It's light and fluffy and lots of it.
Revelstoke is known for its consistent and abundant snowfall, averaging over 10 meters annually, perfect for those seeking fresh snow throughout the season.

Small Town Charm

They say smaller towns breed nicer people and shorter lift lies... at Revelstoke this definitely rings true.
Revelstoke's cosy town exudes a welcoming atmosphere, with over 40 amazing dining options in downtown Revy, unique shops, and a vibrant apres-ski scene. Catering to all: Couples, friends and families.

Revelstoke Insider Tip

"When you are ready for more of a challenge, beyond the lower mountain runs, head to the top of the Revelation Gondola. From here you can head down the Last Spike which will lead you to an array of different runs. The middle pitch of Snow Rodeo and Feller Buncher or Wooley Bully are very wide and include some fun rollers to improve your speed control and turning skills."
