Check the events calendar on the website before you go. SilverStar packs its season with festivals, gigs and local events that add way more flavour to your trip. – Claire Martin

The Mountain With More

Perched high above British Columbia's Okanagan Valley, SilverStar Mountain Resort offers a colourful, ski-in/ski-out village with shops, cafes, and cosy dining spots. The resort's mid-mountain location lets you start your day on the slopes, not in a lift line.

Spanning 3,282 acres of diverse terrain, SilverStar caters to all levels, with groomed cruisers, steep chutes, black diamond runs, and three terrain parks. After a day on the slopes, unwind in the charming village, where everything is within walking distance, including cosy accommodations, local eateries, and après-ski relaxation. SilverStar is the ultimate winter escape.

When to go:

December: Christmas and New Year's Eve festivities. Consider booking your trip very early.
January & February: Great snow and powder with the added benefit of no crowds.
March: Longer days with blue-bird skies and no crowds.

Top Reasons to Visit

Dry Champagne Powder
SilverStar sees an average of 700cm+ of fresh snow a season, and with no snowmaking required you get to enjoy 100% all-natural snow! The snow here is light, dry powder, the kind skier's dreams are made of.

Stunning Terrain
Families thrive on the progressive front-side terrain, while thrill seekers can warm up with a few laps up front before jumping on the high speed Powder Gulch Quad to access the double black diamonds and steep back side chutes for run after run of deep excellence.

Charming Ski-in/Ski-out Village
Ski from your door straight to the slopes! SilverStar offers true ski-in / ski-out convenience at Canada's only mid-mountain village, where every accommodation leads directly to a lift, offering seamless skiing for all levels.

This winter wonderland is brimming with activities - from on-mountain spa experiences and homemade food to cosy fireside dining and lively village hangouts with regular live music. The resort also boasts nine on-mountain hotels and lodges, making it easy to stay right at the heart of it all.

Winter Experiences

Snowcat Dinner Tours
Climb aboard the Paradise Express snowcat to dine at Paradise Camp. A unique dining experience with superb views of the Monashee Mountains. Enjoy a chef prepared menu and an extensive selections of beverages to pair with meals.

Ice Hockey Games
Whether you are a die hard hockey fan or a first timer, a true Canadian hockey game will make a great family event. To make this event hassle-free, the bus leaves directly from the resort and returns you after the game.

Snowmobile Tours
For adrenaline seekers and gentler explorers alike! Experience the SilverStar backcountry like never before. Feel the thrill of the ride, or share the adventure with a friend as you journey deep into the resort.

Guided Mountain Tours
SilverStar's volunteer mountain hosts are on the mountain ready to offer their knowledge of the best runs, hidden treasures and local secrets. On offer daily ski and snowboard tours and cross country tours.

Ice Skating
Glide and twirl around the charming natural ice pond. With a natural skating surface and outdoor fire and music, you'll want to share the experience with your whole family. A great experience for all ages.

Fat Biking
Another great way to enjoy SilverStar Mountain is by exploring 15 km of single and double-track fat bike trails. These bikes are designed to ride on soft, unstable terrain like snow, making them a perfect way to get around.

Snowshoeing
Snowshoeing is a favourite pastime for winter enthusiasts because you can get out and enjoy the outdoors completely at your own pace. 16 km of trails weaving in and around the forest and lower cross country trails.

Ravenwood Snowshoe Dinner
Snowshoe through a winter wonderland to a secluded mountain cabin, where you will enjoy a multi-course European-style dinner. A fine dining adventure in the heart of the beautiful Okanagan Highlands.
