Big Snow Energy

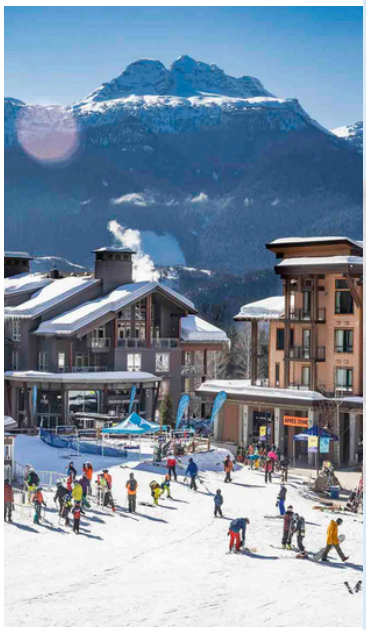

& ski/board

Big Mountain Terrain. Legendary Powder. Small Town Vibe.

Ski terrain

Revelstoke nestled in British Columbia's Selkirk Mountains, is renowned for its vertical drop, inspiring views and champagne powder. But while it is famous for its steep pitches, record-breaking snowfall, and diverse terrain, it has incredible intermediate terrain including long groomers and perfectly spaced glades . The resort is also known for its snowmobiling and heli-skiing plus locally owned après in a small, charming mountain town. Revelstoke is an unparalleled destination for snowboarding and skiing enthusiasts.

Skiable Terrain: 3,121 acres
Vertical Drop: 1,713 metres
Ski Runs: 75

Awesome Blues

While Revelstoke has a reputation for steep and deep it also has a softer side with 43% of its trails in the intermediate category. The longest run, The Last Spike is 15km and a green run.

Après ski dining

On mountain or down in the town! From cosy cafes to casual fine dining, you'll find what you're looking for.

Top Tip: Lunch break at Mackenzie Outpost is a must, for a beverage and burger and the most spectacular views of the surrounding Monashee mountains.

TOP REASONS TO VISIT

Small Town Charm

They say smaller towns breed nicer people and shorter lift lines... at Revelstoke this definitely rings true. Revelstoke's cosy town exudes a welcoming atmosphere, with over 40 amazing dining options in downtown Revy, unique shops, and a vibrant après-ski scene.

Legendary Powder

Located on the Powder Highway, Revelstoke is known for its consistent and abundant snowfall, averaging over 10m annually, perfect for those seeking fresh snow throughout the season.

Vertical Drop

Home to the longest vertical in North America! Revelstoke boasts North America's longest vertical drop at 1,713 meters which allows for incredibly long runs and varied terrain, making it a haven for skiers and snowboarders.

When to go:

December:	Christmas and New Year's Eve festivities. Book early.
Jan/Feb:	Great snow and powder plus the benefit of no crowds (or queues).
Mar/April	Longer days, blue-bird skies and no crowds.
