Ski Season

November to April

Average Snowfall

7.3 metres

Snow

Light and dry

Accommodation

Ski-in/ski-out, slopeside, condos, and hotels

Top Tip

After a fresh dusting, spend the morning lapping Crystal Bowl off the Stairway to Heaven lift, greatest mix of blues, blacks, trees and bowl lines. This will warm you up perfectly and introduce the courage to tackle even more challenging terrain. And lunch at Eagle's Eye after is non-negotiable. Great menu, stunning views. – Nick Suturin

A True Big Mountain Experience

Kicking Horse Mountain Resort, located just outside Golden in British Columbia, is often described as Canada's best-kept ski secret. It's a mountain built for those who like their skiing bold, with 2,825 acres of terrain, over 120 named runs, and four alpine bowls that funnel skiers into long descents, there's no shortage of terrain to explore.

The resort is especially famous for its chutes – a collection of steep, technical lines that have earned it a reputation as a true big-mountain destination.
