Top Tip

When you are ready to move beyond the lower-mountain runs, head up the Revelation Gondola. From the top, take the Last Spike, a long trail that opens up into a variety of runs. You'll find wide slopes and playful rollers that are perfect for building confidence, practising speed control, and sharpening your turns while still keeping things fun. – Rob Macready

Insider Tip

Lunch break at Mackenzie Outpost is a must, for a beverage and burger and the most spectacular views of the surrounding Monashee mountains. – Rob Macready

Most Skiable Vertical in North America!

Revelstoke is a true mountain mecca, known for its deep powder, massive vertical, and incredible mix of terrain, from alpine bowls and steep groomers to perfectly spaced glades. It's a paradise for skiers and snowboarders chasing adventure.

Add heli or cat skiing for the ultimate thrill, with access to untouched backcountry in the stunning Selkirk and Monashee ranges. With its welcoming small-town vibe and rich ski culture, Revelstoke delivers big-mountain excitement with authentic, laid-back charm.

When to go:

December: Christmas and New Year's Eve festivities. Consider booking your trip very early.
January & February: Great snow and powder with the added benefit of less crowds.
March & April: Longer days with blue-bird skies and no crowds.

Top Reasons to Visit

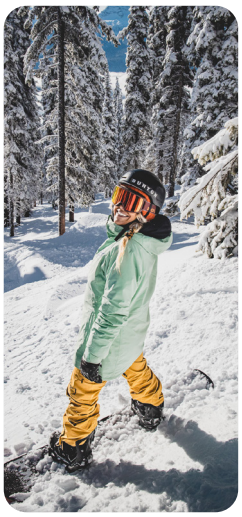

Legendary Powder
Located on the Powder Highway, Revelstoke is known for its consistent and abundant snowfall, averaging over 10 meters annually, perfect for those seeking fresh snow through out the season.

Small Town Charm
They say smaller towns with nicer people and shorter lift lines, and at Revelstoke this definitely rings true. This cosy town exudes a welcoming atmosphere, with over 40 amazing dining options, unique shops, and a vibrant après-ski scene.

Vertical Drop & Ski Terrain
Nestled in British Columbia's Selkirk Mountains, Revelstoke boasts North America's highest vertical drop at 1,713 metres, creating long runs, varied terrain, and inspiring alpine views. While it is world-famous for its steep pitches, record snowfall, and diverse terrain, it also offers fantastic intermediate options, from long groomers to perfectly spaced glades. With its champagne powder and unrivalled mountain experience, Revelstoke is an unparalleled destination for serious snow enthusiasts.

Winter Experiences

First Tracks
Ski or ride before anyone else with Mountain Sports School guides. Experience untracked powder or perfectly manicured groomers. Black run / groomed / ungroomed experience is required.

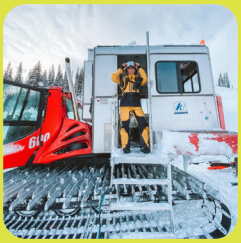

Snowmobile Tours
Revelstoke has some of the best alpine and trail-riding snowmobiling areas in the world. With annual snowfalls of 12-18 metres, moderate winter temperatures, a huge variety of terrain, and the option of staying in a cosy cabin overnight.

Heli-Skiing
Bordering two pristine national parks and offering half a million acres of terrain, heli-skiing takes you across wide-open glaciers, through rolling meadows, and down into cedar rainforest with experienced guides.

Cat Skiing
Imagine a lap of mind-blowing riding with a snowcat ready and waiting to shuttle you back up to the top. It's deep, steep, and fun - lap after lap! It offers comfortable, unique access to breathtaking scenery, awe-inspiring ski runs.

Mountain Sports School
From learning to turn, to ripping up the steeps, or going bigger in the park, certified instructors will help you reach your goals. Also, consider renting your equipment at the resort - ask us about gear rentals to your ski holiday.

Fat Biking
Explore snow-covered trails of Revelstoke on two wheels. On a clear day, there's nothing like cruising beside the river and taking in the Selkirks and Monashees from the valley bottom.

Snowshoeing
Absolutely epic snowfalls and a pair of snowshoes give you the freedom to explore. Wander through giant forests, trek into the subalpine, or stroll along the riverside. Guided options available to explore with an expert.

Dog Sledding
Try "mushing" the dogs or sit back and watch the scenery whiz by from the comfort of the sled. You'll be whisked along snowy trails, around tight corners, and over hills by teams of Alaskan racing huskies led by a guide.

More Activities
Backcountry Touring - Revelstoke backcountry touring is second to none, it is simply a backcountry skiing mecca, Nordic Skiing, Ice Fishing, Yoga, Message & Spa, Ice Hockey Games - Revelstoke Grisleys, Downtown Shopping & Dining
