Quick Guide

Travel & Co

RED Mountain

Legendary Terrain, Endless Powder

Tucked in BC's Kootenay Rockies, RED Mountain Resort offers over 4,200 acres of terrain across five peaks, including steep chutes, open groomers, legendary glades, and in-bounds cat skiing. With 890 metres of vertical and no lift lines, it's a haven for adventure seekers.

The laid-back, uncrowded vibe, welcoming community, and charming village make RED perfect for families and thrill-seekers alike. Located on the iconic Powder Highway, RED delivers deep snow, diverse terrain, and a soulful ski culture, offering unforgettable mountain experiences.

Winter Experiences

Cat Skiing

Access additional terrain via snowcat, providing an affordable way to enjoy untracked powder.

Other Activities:

Snowshoeing, fat biking, ice skating (Rosslund).

The Crescent

A home away from home, offering everything you need for the ultimate stay, just steps from the chairlift. Choose from super space-efficient studio suites, spacious lofts, and 1 bedroom suites. Enjoy a stunning rooftop bar and lounge with panoramic views.

The Josie Hotel

Ideally located slopeside, offering convenient ski-in/ski-out access and boutique guest rooms. After an adventurous day, relax with handcrafted cocktails and locally inspired cuisine on the scenic patio or by the crackling fire pits.
